In Appreciation

Perhaps you sang a lovely song, or sat quietly in a chair.

*Perhaps you sent a floral spray,
if so, we saw it there.*

*Perhaps you spoke the kindest words,
as any friend could do.*

*Perhaps you were not there at all,
just thought of us that day.*

*Whatever you did that day to console our hearts,
we thank you so very much, whatever the part.*

OBITUARY

LOUELLA BRAGGS was born May 2, 1905, in Love Lady, Texas. She was the second eldest of ten siblings born to Madison and Dora Wiley Braggs.

Her early Christian training and formal education was obtained in Love Lady. Louella was saved and filled with the Holy Ghost at an early age.

In 1942, she was united in holy matrimony to Mr. Homer Brown. To this union was borne two lovely daughters, Jessie Mae and Leatha. Her husband and one daughter Jessie Mae preceded her in death.

In 1943, she and family moved to Los Angeles, CA. She joined the Emmanuel Church of God In Christ under the pastorate of the late Bishop S.M. Crouch.

In the early fifties, she was united in holy matrimony to Mr. Isaac Williams who also preceded her in death.

Mother Williams as she was so affectionately called was truly a woman of God. Her kind and gentle manner endeared her to many. Here at Emmanuel she was faithful to every task assigned her. She served on The Deaconess and Evangelist Boards and was one of the soloist in the original Senior Choir of Emmanuel. She was also appointed Mother of that choir. In the community she did what so ever goodly and Godly deed she could to assist any one. She was a member of the Senior Citizen Club and also the Neighborhood Watch Club. Her home was a home for many. Approximately six foster children found love, food and comfort in her home. Her own children called her blessed. She was a member of the Love in Action Committee spearheaded by Mother Beatrice Holland; and to all the aforementioned we say to "God be the Glory."

On Monday, September 30, 1991 at 11:30 p.m., a summons was given the response made from earth to glory just like she desired. Leaving to cherish her memory one daughter and son-in-law, Mrs. Letha Brown Williams and Joseph of Los Angeles, CA; one stepdaughter and son-in-law, Mrs. Barbara Butler and husband, Herman of Los Angeles, CA; one daughter by choice, Mrs. Creola Jackson of Los Angeles, CA; one sister, Mrs. Essie Mitchell of Okmulgee, OK; one brother, Mr. Andrew Braggs of Seagoville, Texas; one granddaughter, Mrs. Linda R. Simms of Los Angeles, CA; one grandson, Isaac Butler of Los Angeles, CA, a host of nephews, nieces and friends.
